It outlines the need for transparent evidence-based decision-making from both the SIO and the BIA.

Behavioural Investigative Advice: Assistance to ...

Behavioral Investigative Advice represents the UK approach to the provision of advice and support to major crime investigations from a behavioral science perspective. Although the foundations of Behavioral Investigative Advice are built upon such precursor influences as criminal investigative analysis, offender profiling, and investigative psychology, the emergence of Behavioral Investigative Advice should be recognized more as a qualitatively distinct profession, than a variation of technique.
