19. Bad Luck "76% of wealthy believe bad habits create detrimental luck vs. 9% of poor." Bad habits create bad outcomes. If you have the habit of skipping flossing at the end of the day, you might get gum disease and have to pay for lots of expensive, painful dental work. Bad habits have bad consequences. Some people don't believe that, though.

have a wonderful marriage with three great children. As I write this, two are in college and one is just beginning high school. We have spent a fortune making sure our children have received the best education available. One day in 1996, one of my children came home disillusioned with school. He was bored and tired of studying. "Why should I put time into studying subjects I will never use in real life?" he protested. Without thinking, I responded, "Because if you don't get good grades, you won't get into college." "Regardless of whether I go to college," he replied, "I'm going to be rich."

determination, a bit of luck? All of those help, but as entrepreneur and motivational speaker Keith Cameron Smith makes clear in this life-changing book, millionaire is first and foremost a state of mind. In The Top Ten Habits of Millionaires, Smith elaborates ten key principles that animate the millionaire mindset - habits that can be learned and mastered by anyone who wants to improve their financial position, including:

- Millionaires think long term - Create a clear vision of the life you desire and focus on it.
- Millionaires talk about ideas, not things and people - Ask positive 'what if' questions every day and bounce ideas off successful people who will be honest with you.
- Millionaires embrace change - Be patient while
