The Everywhere Bear lives on a shelf in class one. Every weekend he goes home with one of the children and has different adventures, going on bus rides, making dens, even going to the moon! One day he has a much bigger adventure when he is dropped in a puddle on a rainy day.

The poetic narrative from Julia Donaldson is first class as usual, I love the way she lists the names of all the children in the class to sound like poetry, then goes on to tell the adventures of the Everywhere Bear that would be so topical for so many school children across the country...
