The Ox-Bow Incident (1943) - Rotten Tomatoes

The Ox-Bow Incident has a simple plot and structure but is nonetheless a masterpiece. It chews up issues of justice, law, democracy, masculinity, strength over reason, morality over action, cowardliness over moral conviction. The characters - particularly poor Davies, who by the end, though the only vocal dissenter, is the one to truly tie himself up in existential knots and angst - are ...
